Introduction

This booklet is published in accordance with a decision made by the Classis of the Heritage Reformed Congregations, convened on October 19, 2007 (Motion #8).

All the minutes of the Classis meetings since the inception of the Heritage Reformed Congregations have been carefully reviewed, and the following decisions have been recorded under the appropriate articles of the Church Order:

- Decisions that are a further interpretation of a given article;
- Decisions that relate to the specific implementation of a given article in our churches.

Once a year this booklet will be updated to reflect any such decisions made by Synod\(^1\) during that year. Any corrections and/or additions should be brought to the attention of the Stated Clerk of the HRC Synod.

The following documents are also included in this booklet:

- A comparison of the 1914 Redaction and the 1618 –1619 Edition of the Church Order of Dort
- Formula of Subscription for Office-bearers
- Rules and Questions for Church Visitation
- Levels of Ecclesiastical Fellowship with other Federations
- Policy Governing the Functioning of the Synodical Article 49 Committee
- Policy Governing the Convention of Special Synods

With the addition of these documents, this booklet should be a handy reference manual for office-bearers.

\(^1\) On March 27, 2009, the HRC Classis decided that from that day on forward the annual major assembly of the HRC would be designated as the HRC Synod.
Rationale for the Adoption of the 1914 Redaction of the Church Order of Dort

After careful consideration by all the churches, Classis adopted the 1914 Redaction of the Church Order of Dort as the official and functional church order of the Heritage Reformed Churches, bearing in mind that Article 86 allows for a consistory to bring suggestions to Classis for possible changes (October 13, 2006 — Motion #6).

This decision was made in light of the fact that during recent years some of our churches have brought to the attention of Classis that there are numerous phrases and a few articles in the original version of the Church Order, adopted by the 1618/1619 Synod of Dort, which are no longer applicable in our day. Since several churches made overtures to Classis that the Church Order be edited to address these issues, Classis appointed an Ad Hoc committee to make a comparison between the original 1618/1619 version, and the Redaction of 1914.

The year 1905 marked the first time that the Reformed churches in the Netherlands adopted a revised version of the 1618/1619 Church Order. The Christian Reformed Churches in North-America followed suit in 1914 by adopting the translation of this 1905 revision, which included some editorial changes to reflect the North-American setting. This became known as the 1914 Redaction of the Church Order of Dort. It should be noted that the 1914 Redaction is the genuine Church Order of Dort — with the exception that obsolete phrases and/or articles were removed, and that the language of some articles was slightly changed to more accurately reflect the current practice of the churches.

It should also be noted that the 1914 Redaction has been the functional church order for many conservative Reformed denominations in North-America since its adoption — including the NRC (which until the mid-70’s used the CRC edition of the Psalter which contains the 1914 Redaction). The best available English commentary on the Church Order of Dort, by VanDellen and Monsma, (Grand Rapids, Michigan: Zondervan Publishing House, 1964) is therefore based entirely on the 1914 Redaction.

We believe that a careful comparison of the 1618/1619 and 1914 redactions of the Church Order will yield the same conclusion Classis arrived at: The 1914 Redaction is the more suitable edition of the Church Order for our churches today. (For a comparison of the 1914 and 1618/1619 redactions of the Church Order, please turn to page 33.)

Article 1

Purpose and Main Content of the Church Order

For the maintenance of good order in the Church of Christ it is necessary that there should be: offices, assemblies, supervision of doctrine, sacraments and ceremonies, and Christian discipline; of which matters the following articles treat in due order.

FIRST HEAD – THE OFFICES

Article 2

The Offices of the Church

The offices are of four kinds: of the Ministers of the Word, of the Professors of Theology, of the Elders, and of the Deacons.

Article 3

The Necessity of a Lawful Call for Ministers of the Gospel

No one, though he be a Professor of Theology, Elder, or Deacon, shall be permitted to enter upon the Ministry of the Word and the Sacraments without having been lawfully called thereunto. And when any one acts contrary thereto, and after being frequently admonished does not desist, the Classis shall judge whether he is to be declared a schismatic or is to be punished in some other way.

Article 4

Proper Admission to the Ministry of Word and Sacrament

The lawful calling of those who have not been previously in office, consists:

First, in the election by the Consistory and the Deacons, after preceding prayers, with due observance of the regulations established by the consistory for this purpose, and of the ecclesiastical ordinance, that only those can for the first time be called to the Ministry of the Word who have been declared eligible by the churches, according to the rule in this matter; and furthermore with the advice of Classis or of the counselor appointed for this purpose by the Classis;
Secondly, in the examination both of doctrine and life which shall be conducted by the Classis, to which the call must be submitted for approval, and which shall take place in the presence of three Delegates of Synod from the nearest Classis;

Thirdly, in the approbation by the members of the calling church, when, the name of the minister having been announced for two successive Sundays, no lawful objection arises; which approbation, however, is not required in case the election takes place with the cooperation of the congregation by choosing out of a nomination previously made;

Finally, in the public ordination in the presence of the congregation, which shall take place with appropriate stipulations and interrogations, admonitions and prayers and imposition of hands by the officiating minister (and by other ministers who are present) agreeably to the form for that purpose.

4.1 Synod moved that the Stated Clerk of Synod formally provide every newly-ordained minister, or minister transferring their credentials to the Heritage Reformed Congregations, with ministerial credentials on the occasion of his ordination, or in the case of transfers, his installation. A copy of the Credentials would also be stored electronically by the Stated Clerk with the file that contains the list of current ministers who have their credentials in the Heritage Reformed Congregations. (June 7, 2018—Motion #70).

Article 5

Extension of a Call to an Ordained Minister

Ministers already in the Ministry of the Word, who are called to another congregation, shall likewise be called in the aforesaid manner by the Consistory and the Deacons, with observance of the regulations made for the purpose by the Consistory and of the general ecclesiastical ordinances for the eligibility of those who have served outside of the Reformed Churches and for the repeated calling of the same Minister during the same vacancy; further, with the advice of the Classis or of the counselor, appointed by the Classis, and with the approval of the Classis or of the Delegates appointed by the Classis, to whom the ministers called show good ecclesiastical testimonials of doctrine and life, with the approval of the members of the calling congregation, as stated in Article 4; whereupon the minister called shall be installed with appropriate stipulations and prayers agreeably to the Form for this purpose.

Article 6

Ministers Serving in Special Institutions

No Minister shall be at liberty to serve in institutions of mercy or otherwise, unless he be previously admitted in accordance with the preceding articles, and he shall, no less than others, be subject to the Church Order.

Article 7

Ministers Must Hold Their Office in a Local Congregation

No one shall be called to the Ministry of the Word, without his being stationed in a particular place, except he be sent to do church extension work.
Article 8

Admission to the Ministry of Men without Training

Persons who have not pursued the regular course of study in preparation for the Ministry of the Word, and have therefore not been declared eligible according to Article 4, shall not be admitted to the Ministry unless there is assurance of their exceptional gifts, godliness, humility, modesty, common sense, and discretion, as also gifts of public address. When such persons present themselves for the Ministry, the Classis (if the [particular] Synod approve) shall first examine them, and further deal with them as it shall deem edifying, according to the general regulations of the churches.

Article 9

Admission of Ministers from Outside the Denomination

Preachers without fixed charge, or others who have left some sect, shall not be admitted to the Ministry in the Church until they have been declared eligible, after careful examination, by the Classis, with the approval of Synod.

9.1 A policy has been adopted governing the admission of non-HRC ministers into the HRC ministry. (October 22, 2004 — Motion #29)

9.2 With the exception of Emeritus status, the credentials of an HRC minister shall be removed if that minister remains without a charge for a period of two years. (March 27, 2009 — Motion #34)

9.3 Synod moved to modify the policy for admission of non-HRC ministers into HRC ministry so that once prerequisites 1a-c have been met, a congregation may call a prospective non-HRC candidate/minister, with the understanding that if the nominee is inclined to accept the call, he completes the conditions 1d.1-6 as part of accepting the call. The congregation would be informed that the calling period is longer than the customary three week period. (April 12, 2013 – Motion #37).

Article 10

A Minister’s Departure from His Present Charge to Another Congregation

A Minister, once lawfully called, may not leave the congregation with which he is connected, to accept a call elsewhere, without the consent of the Consistory, together with the Deacons, and knowledge on the part of the Classis; likewise no other church may receive him until he has presented a proper certificate of dismissal from the church and the Classis where he served.

10.1 A minister may be declared eligible for a call after having served a congregation for two years. If the call is extended after two, but before three years, the minister’s current congregation could request the calling church to reimburse part of the original moving expenses (including immigration costs) incurred in relocating him to his present congregation. (April 18, 2002 — Motion #15)

Article 11

The Duty of the Local Church to Support its Minister

On the other hand, the Consistory, as representing the congregation, shall also be bound to provide for the proper support of its Ministers, and shall not dismiss them from service without the knowledge and approbation of the Classis and of the Delegates of the (particular) Synod.
11.1 In light of the invocation of Article 11 of the Church Order on (date), Classis wishes to affirm that, though there is no longer a functional, ministerial relationship between Pastor X and congregation Y, there continues to be a formal, ecclesiastical relationship between these two parties. This means that the oversight regarding Pastor X’s life and doctrine (including his preaching schedule) remains with the consistory of Y. Furthermore, Pastor X and his family continue to be members of congregation Y until the lawful termination of such membership (i.e., excommunication, withdrawal of membership, or transfer to another congregation). (October 19, 2007 — Motion #5)

Article 12

Ministers are not Permitted to Enter upon a Secular Calling

Inasmuch as a Minister of the Word, once lawfully called as described above, is bound to the service of the Church for life, he is not allowed to enter upon a secular vocation except for such weighty reasons as shall receive the approval of the Classis.

Article 13

Retirement from Active Ministry (Becoming Emeritus)

Ministers, who by reason of age, sickness, or otherwise, are rendered incapable of performing the duties of their Office, shall nevertheless retain the honor and title of a Minister, and the Church which they have served shall provide honorably for them in their need (likewise for the orphans and widows of Ministers) out of the common fund of the Churches, according to the general ecclesiastical ordinances in this matter.

13.1 Synod moved to make the current Emeritus Benevolent Fund a permanent standing committee of Synod. (March 29, 2012 — Motion 25)

13.2 Synod moved that the Emeritus Benevolent Fund use the financial assessment model that is presently being used by the Outreach Minister Support Fund (OSMC) assessment subcommittee. (April 12, 2013 — Motion #24).

13.3 Synod moved to permit all emeritus HRC ministers to participate as advisory members at Synodical meetings and that such an advisory member could participate in sending church’s consistory’s presentation when the Synod points are being discussed. (April 12, 2013 — Motion #40).

Article 14

Ministerial Leave of Absence

If any Minister, for the aforesaid or any other reason, is compelled to discontinue his service for a time, which shall not take place without the advice of the Consistory, he shall nevertheless at all times be and remain subject to the call of the congregation.

Article 15

Ministers Serving Other Churches

No one shall be permitted, neglecting the Ministry of his Church or being without a fixed charge, to preach indiscriminately without the consent and authority of Synod or Classis. Likewise, no one shall be permitted to preach or administer the Sacraments in another Church without the consent of the Consistory of that Church.

15.1 Policy for Admitting Visiting Ministers into HRC Pulpits

1. If a local HRC congregation wishes to invite a non-HRC or non-FRC minister into its pulpit, and if the invitation pertains to occasional pulpit supply, the consistory can proceed to do so, provided that it informs the next HRC Synod of this.

2. If a local HRC congregation wishes to invite a non-HRC or non-FRC minister into its pulpit for an extended period of time (beyond a month of consecutive Lord’s Days), then the consistory must inform the CCC of this and request that a Colloquium Doctem be conducted. The following should be noted regarding this interview:
   - Its purpose will be to ascertain the doctrinal and ecclesiastical views of such a minister.
   - The appended questions will be used as an objective guideline for this interview.
   - Due to geographical constraints, this interview may be conducted by phone — though a face-to-face interview will always be preferable and desirable.
   - Only when the CCC rules the outcome of this interview to be favorable, and informs the consistory of such, may it proceed to invite this minister into its pulpit.
   - CCC will report these decisions to Synod in its annual report.

3. All of the above applies to ministerial students as well. (April 16, 2010 — Motion #15)

Article 16

The Duties of Ministers of the Gospel

The office of the Minister is to continue in prayer and in the Ministry of the Word, to dispense the Sacraments, to watch over his brethren, the Elders and Deacons, as well as the Congregation, and finally, with the Elders, to exercise church discipline and to see to it that everything is done decently and in good order.

Article 17

The Equal Status of the Offices of the Church

Among the Ministers of the Word equality shall be maintained with respect to the duties of their office, and also in other matters as far as possible, according to the judgment of the Consistory, and if necessary, of the Classis; which equality shall also be maintained in the case of the Elders and the Deacons.

---

Article 18

The Task of Professors of Theology

The office of the Professors of Theology is to expound the Holy Scriptures and to vindicate sound doctrine against heresies and errors.
Article 19

Training of Students for the Ministry

The Churches shall exert themselves, as far as necessary, that there may be students supported by them to be trained for the Ministry of the Word.

19.1 Classis adopted the following order of application for young men seeking admission to the seminary:

I. A young man who believes he is called by the Lord to the ministry should contact the pastor or an elder of his local consistory.

II. The applicant should be requested to supply the consistory with a written testimony of how the Lord converted him and called him to the ministry.

III. Specifically, the Consistory should ask him to answer the following questions in writing:

a. Do you believe the Bible to be God’s infallible, inerrant Word, all of which was inspired by God Himself?

b. Have you carefully and thoroughly read our three doctrinal standards (the Heidelberg Catechism, the Belgic Confession, and the Canons of Dort), and are you in complete agreement with them?

c. Please describe for us how the Lord converted you and has continued to lead you to be experimentally acquainted with:
   - Misery: an awakening to God, self, sin, and the world; an ongoing sense of sin, a growing hatred of it, a continuing struggle against it, and evidences of breaking with it.
   - Deliverance: a scriptural longing for and an eventual believing and trusting in the Lord Jesus by God-given faith through the Word.
   - Gratitude: a longing after and a pursuing after holiness (sanctification).

d. Describe for us how you believe God is calling you to the ministry in conformity to His Word and by His providence.

e. Have you read prayerfully and carefully Scripture’s qualifications for the ministry as recorded in 1 Timothy 3 and Titus 1? Though this list of qualifications is both formidable and humbling, can you honestly state that by the grace of God you are pursuing these qualities?

IV. The local consistory should set a time and date when they (together with their moderator, if their congregation is vacant), may interview the applicant.

V. A set of standard questions should be answered by all consistories before the interview. (These questions may be found in appendix 2 of the HNRC Theological Training report).

VI. At the interview with the applicant, the consistory should feel free to ask him questions relating to his written testimony or any other questions deemed necessary and/or fitting. The consistory’s primary focus, however, should not be a determination of the validity of an internal calling to the ministry, so much as whether or not the person’s doctrine and life harmonize with this profession and calling. The local consistory is by far in the best position to consider the applicant’s doctrine and life, since one of its main duties is the oversight of the flock. We urge that the ruling elders have the primary voice in this interview since this area is more the responsibility of the office of elder.

VII. After the interview, the consistory should answer the questions found in appendix 3 of the HNRC Theological Training Report.

If the majority of the consistory votes in favor of forwarding the applicant to the Admissions Committee, a brief written report of the interview should then be forwarded to the clerk of the Admissions Committee together with: (1) the brother’s written testimony of his conversion and calling; (2) the consistory’s answers to appendix 2; and (3) the consistory’s answers to appendix 3 (of the HNRC Theological Training Report). The consistory clerk should read the final draft of the report and the two sets of questions answered in the presence of the consistory so as to be sure that it reflects the mind of the consistory. (January 11, 1995 — Motion #04)

19.2 Classis ruled that it would be better to accept students that are HRC members both in spring and fall to begin their studies in the fall, unless there would be compelling reasons to begin at any other time which then would be determined by the TSC committee. (October 5, 2000 — Motion #22)

19.3 Classis ruled that no applicant will be considered by the TSC or accepted as an HRC-approved student unless he is forwarded through an HRC consistory. However, he would not be accepted as an HRC student until he has been a member in good standing of an HRC congregation for one year, or until the same local 19.4 Synod moved that, in the event that a candidate for ministry does not receive and accept a call after graduating from PRTS, he will receive the following support from the HRC Denominational Student Support Committee:

1) 100% of his stipend for 6 months after graduation;
2) 75% of his stipend for the next 6 months and
3) 50% for the following 6 months.

Candidates requiring additional support should contact the deacons of their respective local congregation. Any additional support following 1.5 years would have to be initiated by a congregation, submitting this as a point to Synod to be approved. (April 12, 2013 — Motion #17).

Article 20

The Speaking of an Edifying Word by Students

Students who have received permission according to the rule in this matter, and persons who have according to Article 8 been judged competent to be prepared for the Ministry of the Word, shall, for their own training, and for the sake of becoming known to the Congregations, be allowed to speak a word of edification in the meetings for public worship.

---

Article 21

The Duty of the Church Regarding Christian Education

The Consistories shall see to it that there are good Christian Schools in which the parents have their children instructed according to the demands of the Covenant.

21.1 Consistories are exhorted to encourage the use of good Christian schools, and if home schooling is practiced, to encourage that the curriculum used be biblical and doctrinally sound. (September 30, 1998 — Motion #31)

Article 22

The Election of Elders

The Elders shall be chosen by the judgment of the Consistory and the Deacons according to the regulations for that purpose established by the Consistory. In pursuance of these regulations, every church shall be at liberty, according to its circumstances, to give the members an opportunity to direct attention to suitable persons, in order that the Consistory may thereupon either present to the congregation for election as many elders as are needed, that they may, after they are approved by it, unless any obstacle arise, be installed with public prayers and stipulations; or present a double number to the congregation and thereupon install the one-half chosen by it, in the aforesaid manner, agreeably to the Form for this purpose.
Article 23

The Office of Elder — and the Duties of this Office

The office of the Elders, in addition to what was said in Article 16 to be their duty in common with the Minister of the Word, is to take heed that the Ministers, together with their fellow-Elders and the Deacons, faithfully discharge their office, and both before and after the Lord’s Supper, as time and circumstances may demand, for the edification of the churches to visit the families of the Congregation, in order particularly to comfort and instruct the members, and also to exhort others in respect to the Christian Religion.

Article 24

The Election of Deacons

The Deacons shall be chosen, approved, and installed in the same manner as was stated concerning the Elders.

Article 25

The Office of Deacon — and the Duties of this Office

The office peculiar to the Deacons is diligently to collect alms and other contributions of charity, and after mutual counsel, faithfully and diligently to distribute the same to the poor as their needs may require it; to visit and comfort the distressed and to exercise care that the alms are not misused; of which they shall render an account in Consistory, and also (if anyone desires to be present) to the Congregation, at such a time as the Consistory may see fit.

Article 26

Deacons and Other Institutions of Mercy

In places where others are devoting themselves to the care of the poor, the Deacons shall seek a mutual understanding with them to the end that the alms may all the better be distributed among those who have the greatest need. Moreover, they shall make it possible for the poor to make use of institutions of mercy, and to that end they shall request the Board of Directors of such institutions to keep in close touch with them. It is also desirable that the Diaconates assist and consult one another, especially in caring for the poor in such institutions.

Article 27

Term Limits for Office-bearers

The Elders and Deacons shall serve two or more years according to local regulations, and a proportionate number shall retire each year. The retiring officers shall be succeeded by others, unless the circumstances and the profit of any church, in the execution of Articles 22 and 24, render a re-election advisable.

Article 28

The Relationship Between Church and State

The Consistory shall take care, that the churches for the possession of their property, and the peace and order of their meetings, can claim the protection of the Authorities; it should be well understood, however, that for the sake of peace and material possession they may never suffer the royal government of Christ over His Church to be in the least infringed upon.

SECOND HEAD – THE ECCLESIASTICAL ASSEMBLIES

Article 29

The Various Ecclesiastical Assemblies

Four kinds of ecclesiastical assemblies shall be maintained: the Consistory, the Classis, (the Particular Synod), and the General Synod.

29.1 Classis (the only major assembly of the HRC) will convene only once annually during the Spring of each year. (October 24, 2008 — Motion #5)

29.2 Classis moved that the annual Classis meeting of our denomination be redesignated as “Synod” and be convened each Spring at a date determined by Synod. These meetings will be preceded by an office-bearers’ conference, prayer service, and the TSC meeting at which time students will be heard and/or accepted to commence fall studies at PRTS. (March 27, 2009 — Motion #05)

Article 30

The Authority of Ecclesiastical Assemblies

In these assemblies ecclesiastical matters only shall be transacted and that in an ecclesiastical manner. In major assemblies only such matters shall be dealt with as could not be finished in minor assemblies, or such as pertain to the Churches of the major assembly in common.

30.1 The following stipulations were adopted for “Customary Questions”:

   a) Oral customary questions can no longer be submitted by consistories. Written questions stemming from current issues can be submitted until the evening before Classis convenes. If there is anything that needs to be addressed from out of the meeting, then it can be done with a show of hands.

   b) Submitted customary questions will be considered at the present meeting, unless the delegates, by a hand vote, determine it to be a matter that should be postponed. (October 5, 2000 — Motions #17–19)

30.2 The following policy was adapted regarding the calling church — the church that officially convenes Classis:

   1. The calling church shall have the following responsibilities:

      a) Officially convene the regular and stated meetings of Classis. This means that the pastor of the calling church shall be responsible for opening the session of Classis — and in the event a congregation is vacant, the Moderator shall do so.

      b) Convene an emergency session of Classis should the majority of the churches request such a session.
c) Make the necessary arrangements for a change of venue should the majority of the churches request this.

2. The churches shall assume the responsibility of being the calling church in alphabetical order. It is understood that the location of Classis is not determined by who might be the calling church but per most recent classis decision or point 1(b) and (c). (March 18, 2005 — Motion #48)

Article 31

The Right of Appeal to a Major Assembly

If any one complain that he has been wronged by the decision of a minor assembly, he shall have the right to appeal to a major ecclesiastical assembly, and whatever may be agreed upon by a majority vote shall be considered settled and binding, unless it be proved to conflict with the Word of God or with the Articles of the Church Order, as long as they are not changed by the General Synod.

31.1 As the Heritage Netherlands Reformed Denomination, we wish to clearly state that we believe a proper interpretation of Article 31 of the Church Order of Dort includes the following: If and when a Classis and/or Synod should make a decision which a local church consistory believes is contrary to Scripture and/or church order (and consequently cannot abide by it in good conscience), Classis and/or Synod shall not have the authority to bind the conscience of the local consistory to obey the decision in question during the process of appeal of that local church consistory. To compel obedience against the conscience of the consistory during the appeal process is to compel that consistory to adhere to what they believe is wrong and/or sinful. If Classis and/or Synod maintain the decision upon appeal, and the appealing church consistory cannot in good conscience abide by it, then Classis and/or Synod, after hearing the reasons why the consistory cannot abide by it and after working with the consistory patiently and in love, shall determine whether or not the decision at hand involves such an essential point of doctrine that full affiliation with the denomination is no longer possible. If no major essential doc-trine clearly stated in Scripture is involved, Classis and/or Synod shall allow the local consistory to exercise its conscientious autonomy in the matter that was appealed. (August 6, 1994 — Motion #02)

Article 32

The Use of Prayer in Ecclesiastical Assemblies

The proceedings of all assemblies shall begin by calling upon the Name of God and be closed with thanksgiving.

Article 33

The Credentials of Those Delegated to Major Assemblies

Those who are delegated to the assemblies shall bring with them their credentials and instructions, signed by those sending them, and they shall have a vote in all matters, except such as particularly concern their persons or churches.

33.1 Classis moved that congregations that presently do not have a functioning consistory but still have (a) serving elder(s), be permitted to delegate one ruling elder to the meetings of Classis in an advisory capacity. (October 19, 2007—Motion #36)

33.2 Synod moved to permit all emeritus HRC ministers to participate as advisory members at Synodical meetings and that such an advisory member could participate in sending church’s consistory’s presentation when the Synod points are being discussed. (April 12, 2013 — Motion #40).
Article 34

The Officers of Ecclesiastical Assemblies — the Moderamen

In all assemblies there shall be not only a president, but also a clerk to keep a faithful record of all important matters.

34.1 The Classis treasurer is to be appointed from the congregation hosting the Classis. Expenses will be paid at Classis. (March 6, 1998 — Motion #29)

34.2 Classis approved the appointment of a standing or “stated” clerk, who will provide continuity between Classis meetings, and will assist the elected clerk of a particular Classis in taking notes, preparing Classis minutes, etc. (September 30, 1998 — Motion #26)

34.3 Classis approved a change in voting procedure. In the event a majority is not attained, candidates should be selected based on the outcome of the second free ballot. (September 30, 1998 — Motion #27)

34.4 Classis will have a preparation secretary, a minutes secretary, and a voted Classis secretary. The preparation secretary is responsible for collecting material for Classis and his responsibility expires when Classis begins. The minutes secretary is responsible for recording the official minutes for Classis and submitting it to the moderamen and help the moderamen produce the final draft. The voted Classis secretary is responsible for condensing minutes and carrying out the classical outgoing correspondence. (March 28, 2008 — Motion #24)

34.5 Those elected to Standing or Assistant clerk need not be an office bearer at present. Whoever is elected to this position, does not have to absent himself for any part of the meeting, but will simply be asked to affirm that he will maintain strict confidentiality regarding all Synodical proceedings. (April 16, 2010 — Motion #33)

Article 35

The Duties of the Chairman of an Ecclesiastical Assembly

The office of the president is to state and explain the business to be transacted, to see to it that everyone observes due order in speaking, to silence the captious and those who are vehement in speaking; and properly to discipline them if they refuse to listen. Furthermore his office shall cease when the assembly arises.

35.1 The chairman (president) of Synod shall be chosen at the prior meeting of Synod. (March 21, 2003 — Motion #38)

35.2 When electing a chairman for Synod, an alternate shall be elected as well. (April 16, 2010 — Motion #37)

Article 36

The Jurisdiction of Major Assemblies over Minor Assemblies

The Classis has the same jurisdiction over the Consistory as the Particular Synod has over the Classis and the General Synod over the Particular.

Article 37

The Consistory of the Local Church

In all Churches there shall be a Consistory composed of the Ministers of the Word and the Elders, who at least in larger congregations, shall, as a rule, meet once a week. The Minister of the Word (or the Ministers, if there be more than one, in turn) shall preside and regulate the proceedings.
Whenever the number of the Elders is small, the Deacons may be added to the consistory by local regulation; this shall invariably be the rule where the number is less than three.

Article 38

The Organization of New Consistories and New Congregations

In places where the Consistory is to be constituted for the first time or anew, this shall not take place except with the advice of the Classis.

38.1 Synod adopted the following procedure for an HRC Preaching Station (Outreach) to become an HRC Congregation:

1. Group requesting organization as an autonomous HRC congregation,
   a) must have been formally recognized by the HRC Synod as an HRC Preaching Station (Outreach) for a period of at least one (1) year;
   b) must have been served effectively by an ordained HRC minister and by one or more office-bearers (elected from the local male membership) for at least one (1) year.

2. The Leadership Committee of this HRC Preaching Station (Outreach), when requesting formal organization of the Preaching Station (Outreach), must express to the mother church, in writing, their agreement with:
   a. The use of the denominationally approved Bible version in all formal ecclesiastical activities;
   b. The three forms of unity (and the possible addition of the Westminster Standards) as the doctrinal framework for all preaching and teaching;
   c. The regular use of the Psalms, as the basis of singing, in all public worship services;
   d. The Church Order of Dort being the basis for all ecclesiastical fellowship.

3. It must be demonstrated by the mother church that there are men in the Preaching Station (Outreach) capable of serving as office-bearers, so that a consistory of at least two elders and one deacon can be constituted. The supporting documentation for this must be submitted by the ruling elders of the mother church, doing so in close consultation with the minister serving the HRC Preaching Station (Outreach).

4. To facilitate a measure of acquaintance with the delegates of the HRC Synod, at least two men from the Leadership Committee of this HRC Preaching Station (Outreach) must have attended (with travel remuneration) one or more HRC Synod meetings as visitors.

5. After the above objectives have been satisfactorily met, the mother church will submit a formal request to the HRC Synod that the HRC Preaching Station (Outreach) under her care be organized as an autonomous HRC congregation.

6. A 2/3 majority vote will be required for the HRC Synod to grant such a request.

7. Upon giving the mother church permission to proceed with organization, a meeting of all the male members of the HRC Preaching Station (Outreach) will be convened. During this meeting, chaired by the mother church, a free election will be held to elect the required number of elders and deacons.

8. The consistory that is to be constituted must consist of at least two elders and one deacon, with the understanding that the minister serving the Outreach will be considered as one of these elders.

9. Upon having announced the names of the elected office-bearers for two consecutive Lord’s days (in both the mother church and the Preaching Station [Outreach]), there will be a designated worship service, conducted by the mother church, during which
   a. These office-bearers will be formally installed in their respective offices;
   b. The minister serving the Preaching Station [Outreach] will formally affirm his readiness to serve the new HRC congregation as her pastor.

10. After the installation of office-bearers, the organization of the new HRC congregation will have been formally ratified, and this congregation will now have all the rights and privileges of an autonomous HRC congregation.

(April 15, 2011—Motion #11)

38.2 Classis ruled that the “Procedure for Mission Posts to become HRC Congregations” be modified so that the section reading, “A majority vote by Classis is necessary for a mission post to be admitted as a congregation of the HRC,” be replaced with, “A two-thirds majority (taken by paper ballot) shall be required to admit a mission post as a congregation of the HRC. (October 24, 2003 — Motion #27)

38.3 The congregations are strongly advised to consult with Classis prior to any action towards disbanding. (March 18, 2005 — Motion #47)

Article 39

Preaching Stations Without a Consistory (Outreaches)

Places where as yet no Consistory can be constituted shall be placed under the care of a neighboring Consistory.

39.1 Classis adopted the following list of responsibilities for the mother church of church plants. (March 21, 2003 — Motion #35)

1. Extend calls on behalf of Classis for the mission post, utilizing the post’s input as to whom to call.
2. Organize with the local leadership committee the installation of the pastor, including logistics surrounding the installation services.
3. Oversee the life and doctrine of the pastor of the outreach. The pastor of the church plant with his family will be members of the mother church.
4. Review preached sermons and provide feedback to the pastor.
5. Maintain regular contact with the local leadership committee. Ensure that the leadership committee feels the freedom to ask the consistory for advice.
6. Conduct periodic family visitations for attendees who have become members of the mother church.
7. Visit the church plant periodically to meet with the people and address any concerns or needs, and offer advice, encouragement, and exhortation.
8. The mother church should be the conduit to Classis of any issues requiring Classis attention.
9. At least one elder from the mother church should be present for the administration of the sacraments until such time as a local congregation is established.
10. Monitor CCRA/IRS tax requirements pertaining to the organization of the congregation and the pastor’s salary and housing.
11. Collect pastor’s support from the church plant and other sources and pay the pastor on a periodic basis according to his agreed remuneration until such time as Classis appoints a committee for this purpose.
13. Accept the membership papers of the members from the congregations that they accept transfers from, i.e.: the NRC and FRC.
14. Facilitate the way for young people to do Confession of Faith.

Article 40

Meetings of the Deacons

The Deacons shall meet, wherever necessary, every week to transact the business pertaining to their office, calling upon the Name of God; whereunto the Ministers shall take good heed and if necessary they shall be present.

Article 41

The Meetings of Classis

The classical meetings shall consist of neighboring churches that respectively delegate, with proper credentials, a minister and an elder to meet at such time and place as was determined by the previous classical meeting. Such meetings shall be held at least once in three months, unless great distances render this inadvisable. In these meetings the ministers shall preside in rotation, or one shall be chosen to preside; however, the same minister shall not be chosen twice in succession. Furthermore, the president shall, among other things, put the following questions to the delegates of each church:

- Are the consistory meetings held in your church?
- Is church discipline exercised?
- Are the poor and the Christian schools cared for?
- Do you need the judgment and help of the Classis for the proper government of your church?

And finally, at one but the last meeting and, if necessary, at the last meeting before the (Particular) Synod, delegates shall be chosen to attend said Synod.

41.1 Classis ruled that, at its discretion, former elders (namely those who have held office during the two years previous to that particular Classis meeting) may be present during closed sessions of Classis in order to benefit from their intimate knowledge concerning specific issues that are being discussed by Classis. (March 18, 2005 — Motion #06)

41.2 Classis adopted the following guidelines for guests of Classis. (October 21, 2005 — Motion #11)

1. Welcome the guests at the beginning of the meeting if they are present and mention those who hope to be present. (Information to be received from the CCC secretary or Classis clerk.)
2. Introduce the invited representatives and give them opportunity to address the Classis, preferably in the morning session and all in one block.
3. Appoint someone from Classis to give a short response to each of the speakers after they have addressed Classis.
4. Finally, appoint someone to bring the denominations represented before the Lord in prayer.

41.3 Classis ruled that, commencing in the fall of 2007, every fourth Classis be held in an HRC congregation other than Burgessville, Grand Rapids, or Jordan — a congregation that would be capable of accommodating a Classis meeting (e.g. Chilliwack, Franklin Lakes, or Hull). Each consistory decides how many elders, in addition to the Classis delegates, they would like to send to the TSC meeting. The expenses of the additional elders attending the TSC meeting are to be covered by the sending consistory. (October 13, 2006 — Motion #47)

41.4 Classis (the only major assembly of the HRC) will convene only once annually during the Spring of each year. (October 24, 2008 — Motion #5)

41.5 Classis moved that the annual Classis meeting of our denomination be redesignated as “Synod” and be convened each Spring at a date determined by Synod. These meetings will be preceded by an office-bearers’ conference, prayer service, and the TSC meeting at which time students will be heard and/or accepted to commence fall studies at PRTS. (March 27, 2009 — Motion #05)

Article 42

The Delegation of Ministers to Classis

Where in a church there are more Ministers than one, also those not delegated according to the foregoing article shall have the right to attend Classis with advisory vote.

Article 43

Discipline for Misconduct at Major Assemblies

At the close of the Classical and other major assemblies, Censure shall be exercised over those, who in the meeting have done something worthy of punishment, or who have scorned the admonition of the minor assemblies.
Article 44

Church Visitation

The Classis shall authorize at least two of her oldest, most experienced, and most competent Ministers to visit all the Churches once a year and to take heed whether the Minister and the Consistory faithfully perform the duties of their office, adhere to sound doctrine, observe in all things the adopted order, and properly promote as much as lies in them, through word and deed, the upbuilding of the congregation, in particular of the youth, to the end that they may in time fraternally admonish those who have in anything been negligent, and may by their advice and assistance help direct all things unto the peace, upbuilding, and greatest profit of the churches. And each Classis may continue these visitors in service as long as it sees fit, except where the visitors themselves request to be released for reasons of which the Classis shall judge.

44.1 Classis ruled that church visitation can be carried out via conference call for every second visitation, unless special attention is required and only if it is confirmed that there is no church member requesting a hearing. (March 18, 2005 — Motion #51)

Article 45

Minutes of Preceding Assemblies

It shall be the duty of the church in which the Classis and likewise the (Particular) or General Synod meets to furnish the following meeting with the minutes of the preceding.

45.1 Classis ruled that the entire moderamen of Classis be responsible for reviewing and publishing the complete Classis minutes, as well as the BSGT synopsis. (March 26, 1999 — Motion #20)

45.2 The standing clerk is to formulate a copy of classis material which is purged of sensitive materials and make this available for members of the HRC as well as invited guests upon approval of the document’s content. (March 18, 2005 — Motion #04)

Article 46

Instructions for Major Assemblies

Instructions concerning matters to be considered in major assemblies shall not be written until the decisions of previous Synods touching these matters have been read, in order that what was once decided be not again proposed, unless a revision be deemed necessary.

Article 47

Particular (Regional) Synods

(Every year [or if need be oftener] four or five or more neighboring Classes shall meet as a Particular Synod, to which each Classis shall delegate two Ministers and two Elders. At the close of both the Particular and the General Synod, some church shall be empowered to determine with advice of Classis the time and place of the next Synod.)
Article 48

Correspondence with other Particular Synods

(Each Synod shall be at liberty to solicit and hold correspondence with its neighboring Synod or Synods in such manner as they shall judge most conducive to general edification.)

Article 49

Committees of the Particular Synods

(Each Synod shall delegate some to execute everything ordained by Synod both as to what pertains to the Government and to the respective Classes, resorting under it, and likewise to supervise together or in smaller number all examinations of future Ministers. And, moreover, in all other eventual difficulties they shall extend help to the Classes in order that proper unity, order, and soundness of doctrine may be maintained and established. Also they shall keep proper record of all their actions to report thereof to Synod, and if it be demanded, give reasons. They shall also not be discharged from their service before and until Synod itself discharges them.)

49.1 Classis ruled that committees of Classis shall be allowed to appoint at their discretion their own sub-committees; and that membership of such committees be subject to approval at the next regular Classis meeting. (April 28, 2000 — Motion #01)

49.2 The Article 49 Committee was assigned the task of overseeing the transition of ministers from one congregation to another upon the acceptance of a call, and that this transition committee consists of the moderators of the churches involved. (March 18, 2005 — Motion #44)

49.3 The four members which compose the Article 49 Committee shall always be selected from four different HRC congregations. (October 24, 2008 — Motion #30)

49.4 Synod granted Article 49 Committee the authority to act in behalf of Synod to grant permission to local elders to proceed dealing members who request membership withdrawal while under church discipline in accordance with aforesaid announcement(s). This exception should be granted because the purpose of bringing cases of discipline to Synod is to prevent consistories from acting too hastily. But in such situations the member himself, being informed that if he persists in his request he will understand he in effect speeds up the discipline procedure and that the church of necessity has to excommunicate him from the body (June 7, 2016 — Motion #10).

49.5 Synod moved to adopt the proposed mandate (see Appendix #5) for the Article 49 Committee (June 6, 2017 — Motion 08).

Article 50

Particulars Regarding the General Synod

The General Synod shall ordinarily meet once every two years unless there be urgent need to shorten the time. To this Synod three Ministers and three Elders out of every Classis shall be delegated. If it becomes necessary in the opinion of at least three Classes to call a meeting of Synod within two years, the local church designated for this purpose shall determine time and place.

50.1 The annual Classis meeting of our denomination has been redesignated as “Synod” and will be convened each Spring at a date determined by Synod. These meetings will be preceded by an office-bearers’ conference, prayer service, and the TSC meeting at which time students will be heard and/or accepted to commence fall studies at PRTS. (March 27, 2009 — Motion 5)
50.2 Synod moved to rotate Synod meetings between the three central churches: Grand Rapids, Burgessville, and Jordan and have every fourth Synod be held in one of the outlying churches by alphabetical rotation. (April 12, 2013 – Motion #47).

50.3 Synod moved that all material for the annual Synod meeting be received by consistories at least 10 weeks prior to the meeting date. The material for one-issue special Synods must be received at the time that a special Synod is called. (April 16, 2015 – Motion #67)

50.4 The Heritage Reformed Congregations take the following stance regarding study reports. First we acknowledge and affirm the following (descending) order of authority: the Bible, the confessions, the church order, and finally, study reports. Study reports represent explanations of our views regarding particular, current, cultural situations, and as such have not experienced the collective scrutiny of the larger Reformed or Presbyterian Church afforded to more authoritative documents, such as the confessions. Study reports represent synod’s recommendations and advice pertaining to specific issues. We recognize that study reports should serve as explanatory helps to the congregations, particularly in addressing issues that may be causing strife and division in or among the congregations. As such, we do not advocate issuing study reports on every minor concern. Additionally, we note that, since position papers provide a denominationally approved report regarding our view on specific issues, they may prove to be valuable in light of our increasingly litigious society. (June 7, 2016 – Motion #46).

50.5 Synod moved to modify the Spiritual Welfare Reports as follows:

1. Reports to be submitted in writing and to be included in the Synod agenda,
2. During the Synod meeting, the respective delegates can provide brief updates and answer questions from Synod,
Prayer will be offered for the congregation by a delegate of the next congregation to report (June 6, 2017 – Motion #04)

50.6 Synod approved the policy governing the ecclesiastical procedure for calling Special Synods (see Appendix #6). (June 6, 2017 – Motion #46).

Article 51

The Missionary Calling of the Church

The Missionary Work of the Church is regulated by the General Synod in a Mission Order.

51.1 Consideration for financial support for individual missionary efforts of (a) member(s) of one of our HRC congregations will be governed by the following stipulations. (October 24, 2008 — Motion #18)

1. Classis will maintain a list of approved missionary endeavors. Each missionary endeavor on the list would first need to be nominated for Classis’s acceptance by an HRC Consistory that is willing to provide suitable oversight of the missionary endeavor’s activities. This oversight would need to include the activities being performed, as well as its financial accountability. Each year Classis would review the approved list and receive assurances from the nominating consistory that it is still providing the required oversight.
2. Classis will mandate the Mission Committee to attempt to provide each approved missionary endeavor with their assistance
3. The Mission Committee may include articles about these endeavors in its Glad Tidings publication. It will also serve as a vehicle to forward financial gifts to these endeavors. And, to the degree the Mission Committee would deem itself able, it would also include limited funding for these endeavors in its annual budget.

Article 52

Translation of Ecclesiastical Proceedings

Inasmuch as different languages are spoken in the churches, the necessary translations shall be made in the ecclesiastical assemblies, and in the publication of recommendations, instructions, and decisions.

The Heritage Netherlands Reformed Congregations are founded upon the infallible truth revealed in the Bible (Authorized Version) as the Word of God. Moreover, the congregations desire to live in accord with the Church Order of Dort, which together with the doctrinal standards listed above, were adopted at the National Synod of the Reformed Church, held at Dordrecht, The Netherlands in the years 1618-1619. (August 6, 1994 — Motion #03)

53.2 In addition to the Three Forms of Unity, the Westminster Standards have also been adopted as doctrinal standards of the HRC, including the caveats provided by the CCC. With regard to the issue of spiritual desertion as a ground for Christian divorce, Classis recommends that it be left to the conscience of the individual office-bearer, adding it to the list of caveats. Each congregation is free to choose whether to adopt these standards in addition to the Three Forms of Unity, and existing members are not required to accept the new standards. FOURTH HEAD — CENSURE
AND ECCLESIASTICAL ADMONITION

Article 71

The Nature of Church Discipline

Article 72

If any one, having been admonished in love concerning a secret sin by two or three persons, does not give heed, or otherwise has committed a public sin, the matter shall be reported to the Consistory.

Article 75

Reconciliation with the Church

The reconciliation of all such sins as are of their nature of a public character, or have become public because the admonition of the Church was despised, shall take place (upon sufficient evidence of repentance) in such a manner as the Consistory shall deem conducive to the edification of each Church. Whether in particular cases this shall take place in public, shall, when there is a difference of opinion about it in the Consistory, be considered with the advice of two neighboring Churches or of the Classis.

There shall be three such admonitions. In the first the name of the sinner shall not be mentioned that he be somewhat spared. In the second, with the advice of the Classis, his name shall be mentioned. The interval between the admonitions shall be left to the discretion of the Consistory.
Article 78

Reconciliation of Excommunicated Members

Whenever anyone who has been excommunicated desires to become reconciled to the Church in the way of repentance, it shall be announced to the Congregation, either before the celebration of the Lord’s Supper, or at some other opportune time, in order that (in as far as no one can mention anything against him to the contrary) he may with profession of his conversion be publicly reinstated, according to the form for that purpose.

Article 79

Discipline of Office Bearers

When Ministers of the Divine Word, Elders, or Deacons, have committed any public, gross sin, which is a disgrace to the Church, or worthy of punishment by the Authorities, the Elders and Deacons shall immediately by preceding sentence of the Consistory thereof and of the nearest Church, be suspended or expelled from their office, but the Ministers shall only be suspended. Whether these shall be entirely deposed from office, shall be subject to the judgment of the Classis, with the advice of the Delegates of the (Particular) Synod mentioned in Article 11.

Article 80

Offenses Worthy of Suspension and/or Deposition

Furthermore, among the gross sins, which are worthy of being punished with suspension or deposition from office, these are the principal ones: false doctrine or heresy, public schism, public blasphemy, simony, faithless desertion of office or intrusion upon that of another, perjury, adultery, fornication, theft, acts of violence, habitual drunkenness, brawling, filthy lucre; in short, all sins and gross offenses, as render the perpetrators infamous before the world, and which in any private member of the Church would be considered worthy of excommunication.

Article 81

Censura Morem — Internal Consistory Discipline

The Ministers of the Word, Elders, and Deacons, shall before the celebration of the Lord’s Supper exercise Christian censure among themselves, and in a friendly spirit admonish one another with regard to the discharge of their office.

Article 82

Transfer of Membership to Other Churches

To those who remove from the Congregation, a letter or testimony concerning their profession and conduct shall be given by the Consistory, signed by two; or in the case of letters, which are given under the seal of the Church, signed by one.
82.1 God’s Holy Word and the principles in our doctrinal standards adequately address the issue of membership in the Church of Jesus Christ. Membership in the church is an organic relationship to the body, the Church. Membership papers (more appropriately called letters of transfer or attestation) simply refer to one’s status in the Church of Jesus Christ on earth. While a member should not leave a faithful local church without biblical reasons, he is free to ask for his membership to be transferred to another faithful confessional church. This not only places him in union with that local church but also under the supervision of Christ-ordained elders. However, in the event that a member insists on his removal of membership while under discipline, there are two possible courses of action. First, if he requests to be moved to another congregation, a letter of transfer or attestation will note the circumstances under which he is making transfer, and that local body will be requested to follow up on Christian discipline. Second, should he request his membership transfer to be sent to him he must be informed that, though he considers it termination of local church membership, biblically it does not sever him from the Church of Christ. He must be admonished to repent of his sin and be notified that, if he persists in pursuing his request, he will officially be excommunicated in light of Christ’s command, and be cut off from the body and communion of Christ (June 7, 2016 – Motion #08).

82.1 Synod moved to clarify Level Four correspondence with an additional sub-point that membership transfers into the HRC are treated in the same manner as membership transfers between HRC churches. (June 7, 2016 – Motion #17).

Article 83

Diaconal Support for Departing Members who Lack Sufficient Means

Furthermore, to the poor, removing for sufficient reasons, so much money for traveling shall be given by the Deacons, as they deem adequate. The Consistory and the Deacons shall, however, see to it that they be not too much inclined to relieve their Churches of the poor, with whom they would without necessity burden other Churches.

Article 84

Equality of Churches and Office Bearers

No Church shall in any way lord it over other Churches, no Minister over other Ministers, no Elder or Deacon over other Elders or Deacons.

84.1 Classis adopted the following statement: The Heritage Netherlands Reformed Denomination is organized on a congregational and non-presbyterial basis with regards to all local church real and personal properties. As such, local congregations shall retain full rights to all of their local church real and personal properties. In the event a local congregation, by majority vote, disaffiliates with the denomination for any reason, all of the local congregation’s real and personal property shall remain with the congregation and shall not be distributed to any faction solely because of such faction’s allegiance to the denomination. (August 6, 1994 — Motion #01)

84.2 Classis ruled that local consistories are autonomous in the decision to read announcements sent to them. Committees should send details to the consistories (if necessary) but controversial pulpit announcements should be kept as brief as possible. (April 20, 2001 — Motion #17)

Article 85

Correspondence with Other Denominations

Churches whose usages differ from ours merely in non-essentials shall not be rejected.
85.1 Classis ruled that a committee be appointed to receive correspondence and communicate with groups or churches that request affiliation with the HNRC. This committee should be made up of one minister, and one Elder from each church. (January 11, 1995 — Motion #02)

85.2 Classis ruled that the Church Affiliation Committee and Interdenominational Correspondence Committee be amalgamated to form a combined committee called the Church Correspondence Committee. The mandate given to the Church Affiliation Committee will be incorporated into the mandate of this new committee. (April 18, 2002 — Motion #25)

85.3 Classis ruled that a better approach to the issue of feast days, and how our fathers viewed them in the past, is to treat any such churches along the already established lines of three levels of communication. (October 21, 2005 — Motion #32)

85.4 Classis moved to adopt the next two levels of correspondence to complete the spectrum of five possibilities. The complete text of all five levels of correspondence has been included as Appendix #3. (March 27, 2009 — Motion #20)

85.5 Synod adopted a modified form of level five of correspondence, in which the full ramifications of Full Union are spelled out (April 15, 2011—Motion #10). For the complete text of all five levels see Appendix #4.

Article 86

Revision of the Church Order

These Articles, relating to the lawful order of the Church, have been so drafted and adopted by common consent, that they (if the profit of the Churches demand otherwise) may and ought to be altered, augmented or diminished. However, no particular Congregation, Classis, (or Synod) shall be at liberty to do so, but they shall show all diligence in observing them, until it be otherwise ordained by the General Synod.

86.1 Classis adopted the 1914 redaction of the Church Order of Dort to become the official and functional church order of the Heritage Reformed Churches, bearing in mind that Article 86 allows for a consistory to bring suggestions to Classis for possible changes. (October 13, 2006 — Motion #08)

86.2 Classis ruled that 1) all Classis decisions relating to any Church Order Article be annotated (with the date of the decision), 2) these annotations be published with the Redaction of 1914, and 3) a copy be provided to each consistory. (October 13, 2007 — Motion #09)

Thirdly, in the approbation and endorsement (by the magistrates and then also) by the members of the Reformed Congregation of that city, if, the name of the Minister having been announced in the churches over a period of fourteen days, no objection arises.

Finally, in the public ordination before the congregation, which shall take place with appropriate stipulations and interrogations, prayer and the laying on of the hands by the ordaining Minister and by other Ministers, if more are present, in accordance with the Form for this purpose. It is understood that the imposition of hands may take place in the Classical assembly to the newly graduated Ministers being sent to the Churches under the Cross.

Article 5

All due
called show good ecclesiastical testimonials of doctrine and life, with the approval of the members of the calling congregation, as stated in Article 4; whereupon the minister called shall be installed with appropriate stipulations and prayers agreeably to the Form for this purpose.

Article 6
No Minister shall be at liberty to serve in institutions of mercy or otherwise, unless he be previously admitted in accordance with the preceding articles, and he shall, no less than others, be subject to the Church Order.

Article 7
No one shall be called to the Ministry of the Word, without his being stationed in a particular place, except he be sent to do church extension work.

Article 8
Persons who have not pursued the regular course of study in preparation for the Ministry of the Word, and have therefore not been declared eligible according to Article 4, shall not be admitted to the Ministry unless there is assurance of their exceptional gifts, godliness, humility, modesty, common sense and discretion, as also gifts of public address. When such persons present themselves for the Ministry, the Classis (if the Synod approve) shall first examine them, and further deal with them as it shall deem edifying, according to the general regulations of the churches.

Article 9
Preachers without fixed charge, or others who have left some sect, shall not be admitted to the Ministry in the Church until they have been regarded as previously mentioned with respect to proper right of presentation or any other right, insofar as it can be employed to edification without detriment to the Church of God and good Church Order; to which (the Civil Authorities and) the Synods of the respective districts are to give their careful attention, and make proper regulations, to the welfare of the Churches.

Article 8
No school teachers, artizans, or others who have not studied, shall be admitted to the ministry, unless there is definite assurance of their being exceptionally gifted, godly, humble, modest, and possessed of good sense and discretion, as well as gifts of public address. Article 11

Article 13

Article 24
The Deacons shall be chosen, approved, and installed in the same manner as was stated concerning the Elders.

Article 26
In places where others are devoting themselves to the care of the poor, the Deacons shall seek a mutual understanding with them to the end that the alms may all the better be distributed among those who have the greatest need. Moreover, they shall make it possible for the poor to make use of institutions of mercy, and to that end they shall request the Board of Directors of such institutions to keep in close touch with them. It is also desirable that the Diaconates assist and consult one another, especially in caring for the poor in such institutions.

Article 28
The Consistory shall take care, that the churches for the possession of their property, and the peace and order of their meetings, can claim the protection of the Authorities; it should be well understood, however, that for the sake of peace and material possession they may never suffer the royal government of Christ over His Church to be in the least infringed upon.

Article 29
Four kinds of ecclesiastical assemblies shall be maintained: the Consistory, the Classis (the Particular Synod), and the General Synod.

Article 30
In these assemblies ecclesiastical matters only shall be transacted and that in an ecclesiastical manner. In major assemblies only such matters shall be dealt with as could not be finished in minor assemblies, or such as pertain to the Churches of the major assembly in common.

Article 31
If any one complain that he has been wronged by the decision of a minor assembly, he shall have the right to appeal to a major ecclesiastical assembly.

SECOND HEAD – THE ECCLESIASTICAL ASSEMBLIES

Article 29
Four kinds of ecclesiastical assemblies shall be maintained: the Consistory, the Classical Meetings, the Particular Synod, and the General or National Synod.

Article 30
In these assemblies ecclesiastical matters only shall be transacted and that in an ecclesiastical manner. In major assemblies only such matters shall be dealt with as could not be finished in minor assemblies, or such as pertain to the churches of the major assembly in common.

Article 31
If anyone complain that he has been wronged by the decision of a minor assembly, he shall have the right to appeal to a major ecclesiastical assembly.
assembly, and whatever may be agreed upon by a majority vote shall be considered settled and binding, unless it be proved to conflict with the Word of God or with the Articles of the Church Order, as long as they are not changed by the General Synod.

Article 32
The proceedings of all assemblies shall begin by calling upon the Name of God and be closed with thanksgiving.

Article 33
Those who are delegated to the assemblies shall bring with them their credentials and instructions, signed by those sending them, and they shall have a vote in all matters, except such as particularly concern their persons or churches.

Article 34
In all assemblies there shall be not only a president, but also a clerk to keep a faithful record of all important matters.

Article 35
The office of the president is to state and explain the business to be transacted, to see to it that everyone observe due order in speaking, to silence the captious and those who are vehement in speaking; and properly to discipline them if they refuse to listen. Furthermore his office shall cease when the assembly arises.

Article 36
The Classis has the same jurisdiction over the Consistory as the Particular Synod has over the Classis and the General Synod over the Particular.

Article 37
In all Churches there shall be a Consistory composed of the Ministers of the Word and the Elders, who at least in larger congregations, shall, as a rule, meet once a week. The Minister of the Word (or the Ministers, if there be more than one, in turn) shall preside and regulate the proceedings. Whenever the number of the Elders is small, the Deacons may be added to the consistory by local regulation; this shall invariably be the rule where the number is less than three.

Article 38
In places where the Consistory is to be constituted for the first time or anew, this shall not take place except with the advice of the Classis.

Article 39
Places where as yet no Consistory can be constituted shall be placed under the care of a neighboring Consistory.

Article 40
The Deacons shall meet, wherever necessary, every week to transact the business pertaining to their office, calling upon the Name of God; whereunto the Ministers shall take good heed and if necessary they shall be present.

Article 41
The classical meetings shall consist of neighboring churches that respectively delegate, with proper credentials, a minister and an elder to meet at such time and place as was determined by the previous classical meeting. Such meetings shall be held at least once in three months, unless great distances render this inadvisable. In these meetings the ministers shall preside in rotation, or one shall be chosen to preside; however, the same minister shall not be chosen twice in succession.

Furthermore, the president shall, among other things, put the following questions to the delegates of each church: there be more than one, in turn shall preside and regulate the proceedings. (And also the Magistrates of the place respectively shall, if they desire to do so, delegate one or two of their number, being members of the Congregation, to the Consistory to listen to the matters under discussion and to participate in the deliberation.)

Article 38
In places where the Consistory is to be constituted for the first time this shall not take place except with the advice of the Classis. And whenever the number of Elders is very small, the Deacons may be added to the Consistory.

Article 39
In places where as yet there is no Consistory, the Classis shall in the meantime take care of the work which would otherwise be performed by the Consistory in accordance with this Church Order.

Article 40
Likewise the Deacons shall meet every week to transact the business pertaining to their office, calling upon the name of God; whereunto the Ministers shall take good heed and if necessary they shall be present.

Article 41
The Classical meetings shall consist of neighboring churches that respectively delegate, with proper credentials, a Minister and an Elder, to meet at such a time and place as was determined by the previous Classical meeting, with the understanding that this be within the next three months. In these meetings the Ministers shall preside in rotation or the assembly shall choose one to preside; however, the same Minister shall not be chosen twice in succession. Furthermore, the president shall, among other things, ask each of them if Consistory meetings are held in their churches; if church discipline is exercised; if the poor and the schools are cared for; lastly, if they need the
Are the consistory meetings held in your church?
Is church discipline exercised?
Are the poor and the Christian schools cared for?
Do you need the judgment and help of the Classis for the proper government of your church?

And finally, at one but the last meeting and, if necessary, at the last meeting before the (Particular) Synod, delegates shall be chosen to attend said Synod.

Article 42
Where in a church there are more Ministers than one, also those not delegated according to the foregoing article shall have the right to attend Classis with advisory vote.

Article 43
At the close of the Classical and other major assemblies, Censure shall be exercised over those, who in the meeting have done something worthy of punishment, or who have scorned the admonition of the minor assemblies.

Article 44
The Classis shall authorize at least two of her oldest, most experienced and most competent Ministers to visit all the Churches once a year and to take heed whether the Minister and the Consistory faithfully perform the duties of their office, adhere to sound doctrine, observe in all things the adopted order, and properly promote as much as lies in them, through word and deed, the upbuilding of the congregation, in particular of the youth, to the end that they may in time fraternally admonish those who have in anything been negligent, and may by their advice and assistance help direct all things unto the peace, upbuilding, and greatest profit of the churches. Heritage Reformed Churches

Formula of Subscription

We, the undersigned (that is, Professors of the Heritage Reformed Congregations — or Ministers of the Gospel, Elders, and Deacons of the Heritage Reformed Congregation of_________________), do hereby sincerely and in good conscience before the Lord declare by this our subscription that we heartily believe and are persuaded that all the articles and points of doctrine, contained in the Belgic Confession and Heidelberg Catechism of the Reformed churches, together with the explanation of some points of the aforesaid doctrine made by the National Synod of Dordrecht (1618-1619), do fully agree with the Word of God. We promise therefore diligently to teach and faithfully to defend the aforesaid doctrine, without either directly or indirectly contradicting the same, by our public preaching or writing.

We declare, moreover, that we not only reject all errors that militate against this doctrine and particularly those which were condemned by the above-mentioned Synod, but that we are disposed to refute and contradict these, and to exert ourselves in keeping the Church free from such errors. And if hereafter any difficulties or different sentiments respecting the aforesaid doctrines should arise in our minds, we promise that we will neither publicly nor privately propose, teach, or defend the same, either by preaching or writing, until we have first revealed such sentiments to the consistory and Classis, that the same may be there examined, being ready always cheerfully to submit to the judgment of the consistory and Classis, under the penalty in case of refusal to be, by that very fact, suspended from our office.

And further, if at any time the consistory or Classis, upon sufficient grounds of suspicion and to preserve the uniformity and purity of doctrine, may deem it proper to require of us a further explanation of our sentiments respecting any particular article of the Confession of Faith, the Catechism, or the explanation of the National Synod, we do hereby promise to be always willing and ready to comply with such requisition, under the penalty above mentioned, reserving for ourselves, however, the right of an appeal, whenever we shall believe ourselves aggrieved by the sentence of the consistory or the Classis, and until a decision is made upon such an appeal, we will acquiesce in the determination and judgment already passed.

Levels of Ecclesiastical Fellowship

(Adopted by the HRC Synod on April 15, 2011—Motion #10)

Level 1: Informal Contact
1. This informal level allows relationships to develop with like-minded churches or denominations without requiring a formal tie. This level includes only informal communication with various churches and denominations around us, both in our local community as well as beyond.
2. There is no obligation or commitment except for us to witness the Reformed biblical truth to them.
3. Meetings with their representatives are to be held by the Church Correspondence Committee in order to determine if there is sufficient ground to bring a request before Synod that this denomination/congregation ought to be considered eligible to move to the second level of correspondence. Synod must approve of this request before any other level of correspondence can be carried out. These meetings would seek to determine the doctrinal position of the denomination/congregation and whether or not they uphold the Three Forms of Unity and/or the Westminster Standards.

Level 2: Formal Correspondence
1. A church and/or denomination would need to direct its committee representatives to sign the Formula for Public Declaration of Agreement with the Three Forms of Unity and/or Westminster Standards on behalf of their broadest assembly.
2. Copies of the official minutes, without confidential material, of the broadest assemblies are to be sent to each other. A copy of each issue of the official denominational publication is to be sent to one another’s consistory members.
3. Representatives of both denominations would continue to meet to determine whether the next level of communication is attainable and desirable and if so, the Church Correspondence Committee would forward this request on to Synod for approval.
4. This is done with the understanding that this level of “Formal Correspondence” must be in place for a minimum of two years before the next level of communication would be considered.

Level 3: Limited Fellowship
1. At this level there is a formal acknowledgment that the gifts found in each other’s churches can be employed in the churches/denominations for the spiritual building up of the kingdom of God. This level would include everything under “Formal Correspondence” and the following:
   - Each individual consistory of the HRC would be free to invite any minister from those denomination(s)/congregation(s) [which have been given classis approval to attain Level 3 correspondence] to preach in their pulpits.
   - Each individual consistory of the HRC would be free to allow any member from these denomination(s)/congregation(s) [which have been given synodical approval to attain Level 3 correspondence] to attend the Lord’s Supper.

- Mutual agreement is made with the corresponding denomination/congregation, that delegates would be sent to one another’s broadest assemblies as advisory members only. This Level of Fellowship may be revoked at any time by Synod.

Level 4: Full Fellowship

1. At this level the realization of Christ’s prayer is more fully evidenced.
2. This level includes everything under “Limited Fellowship” as well as:
   - Ministers would be considered having full ministerial rights in either federation;
   - Ministers would be callable from any congregation in either federation without further examination.
3. This full fellowship could include various considerations or stipulations made by both federations in order to arrive at this level. These would mutually be agreed upon by both federations and must not hinder the professed unity expressed.
4. At this point, such fellowship is permanent. This would mean that if either a congregation or the federation departs from the Word of God, the recourse is to appeal to the broadest assembly. If no reconciliation is made, sadly, separation must then take place on the basis of the Word of God.

Level 5: Full Union

Full union means that a complete amalgamation of two federations of churches has taken place. Such amalgamation will

1. Only be proposed after these federations have functioned harmoniously and efficiently at level 4 for a minimum of two years;
2. Be the result of the Synods of both federations having approved of this by a 2/3 majority;
3. Constitute a new federation with a previously agreed upon
   - Set of doctrinal standards
   - Church order
   - Ecclesiastical structure (e.g. Classes, Regional Synods, Synods);
4. Be the fullest realization of Christ’s prayer that His people be one as He and His Father are one.
Synodical Mandate for the Article 49 Committee
(Adopted by the 2017 HRC Synod)

The committee appointed by Synod in conformity to Article 49 of the Church Order, shall perform the following tasks on behalf of Synod:

1. Its primary function shall be to function as an advisory body to local consistories, and the committee shall only render advice when requested by a local consistory. Once such advice has been rendered, the local consistory will be at liberty to implement such advice as it sees fit.

2. This committee will only render advice upon ascertaining that a local consistory has first sought the advice of its Moderator (or counsellor).

3. Since the role of this committee is consistent with the duties of the eldership, Synod shall appoint ministers or elders to serve on this committee. Synod shall make these appointments annually by way of a free vote.

4. To safeguard the objectivity of this committee, the following shall be obligatory:
   a) Committee members will serve a three-year term, and shall do so after having been an alternate member of this committee the year prior to this three-year term.
   b) Each year, one member will retire, and a new alternate shall be appointed. The alternate may be called upon to participate in the functioning of this committee if
      • one of its members must recuse itself due to a conflict of interest;
      • one of its members resigns from the committee;
      • one of its members cannot participate due to illness and/or personal circumstances.
   c) The senior member of the committee (serving the last year of a three-year term) shall serve as chairman, and the member serving his second year shall function as clerk. These appointments will rotate annually.
   d) Members of this committee cannot be members of the same HRC congregation.

5. This committee shall be authorized by Synod to oversee the transition of ministers from one congregation to another. Thus the installation of a minister (or candidate) in a given HRC congregation can only take place after the following documentation has been submitted to this committee:
   a) The call letter of the congregation extending the call (endorsed by the Moderator);
   b) The letter of acknowledgement by the minister or candidate to whom the call has been extended;
   c) The letter communicating the acceptance of the call by said minister or candidate;
   d) A letter of attestation regarding the life and doctrine of said minister or candidate—originating either from the congregation previously served, or, in the case of a candidate, from the last congregation that exercised ecclesiastical oversight, and also from the seminary.

If this committee deems all of this documentation to be in order, it shall communicate this in writing to the consistory of the congregation where the minister or candidate is to be installed as pastor, thereby formally giving said consistory permission to proceed with the installation.
a) This committee has formulated letters for the former consistory and the receiving consistory to use to facilitate this process (see attachments).
b) Moderators, when asked to sign call letters, should remind consistories of this process.

6. This committee may be authorized by Synod to act on its behalf in discipline cases. Thus, if it is urgent for a local consistory to proceed with the second step of formal discipline, this committee may grant permission to proceed if in its judgment this decision cannot wait until the next annual convention of Synod. Though this decision will be binding, it must still be formally endorsed by Synod.

7. This committee may act on behalf of Synod only when explicitly directed by Synod to do so.

8. The advice and/or intervention of this committee cannot be requested by individual members of a local congregation. The strict parameters of the functioning of this committee as an advisory body to consistories cannot be violated. If members have grievances against their local consistory, the consistory has the following options:
a) After contacting its Moderator, the consistory may request the advice of this committee;
b) Inform members that they may make their grievances known to the church visitors when church visitation is conducted, given that the matter has already been dealt with by the consistory, and that they may appeal a decision of the local consistory to Synod.

9. As stipulated by Article 49—“They shall keep proper record of all their actions to report thereof to Synod, and if it be demanded, give reasons”—this committee shall carefully maintain a properly protected archive of committee approved correspondence and documentation germane to the functioning and duties of this committee. This archive would only be accessible to present members of the committee.

Policy for the Convention of Special Synods

(Adopted by the 2017 HRC Synod)

1. The convention of a special synod can be requested by:
   a) One of the local churches of our HRC federation;
   b) One of the standing committees of the HRC Synod.

2. Should either a HRC consistory or a synodical committee be convinced that there is a compelling reason for the convention of a special session of Synod, such a consistory or committee must communicate this to the calling church (appointed at the most recent regular session of Synod).

3. Such a request must be accompanied by a clear rationale and/or supportive documentation.

4. The consistory of the calling church will forward this request, and any supportive documentation, to all HRC consistories, requesting that each consistory respond either affirmatively or negatively to such a request.

5. Irrespective of the outcome, the consistory of the calling church must inform all HRC consistories of the outcome of this vote.

6. If a 2/3 majority of HRC consistories concurs that a special session of Synod must be convened, the calling church will then be called upon to determine whether the nature of the case requires the convention of a physical Synod (with delegates from all churches in attendance at a specified location), or whether it will suffice to convene a cyber Synod.

7. Should the consistory of the calling church conclude that a physical Synod must be convened, said consistory will then be responsible for all the logistics pertaining to the convention of such a Synod—including the determination of date and location.

8. Should the consistory of the calling church conclude that the matter can be addressed by way of a cyber synod, all necessary arrangements will have to be made to facilitate this.

9. Once such a special Synod convenes, its session will be opened, as required, by the pastor or moderator of the calling church.

10. Once the credentials of the delegates have been received, said pastor will then ask for a motion that the Moderamen of the last regular session of Synod be reinstated as the Moderamen of this special Synod.

11. The agenda of this special Synod will be restricted to the matter(s) brought to this Synod by the local HRC consistory requesting the convention of this special Synod.
12. Should another HRC consistory (or another synodical committee) also desire to have a matter considered by this special session of Synod, then such a request must be made known in a timely fashion to the consistory of the calling church.

13. The consistory of the calling church must then again consult all HRC consistories to determine whether a 2/3 majority is in favor of including this matter in the agenda of this special Synod.

14. If the consideration of such an additional matter can possibly be delayed until Synod convenes for its annual and regular session, consistories should not vote in favor of its inclusion in the agenda of this special Synod.

15. This special Synod will neither consider any reports by standing committees, nor will it entertain any customary questions submitted by any of the churches.

16. The minutes of this special Synod will be submitted for approval at the next regular session of Synod.
